

celluloid dreams

F a c t S h e e t

- Program Name: Celluloid Dreams
- Time/Day: Mondays, 5-6 PM (PT)
- Length: 60 minutes
- Description: Magazine-style format. Interviews with filmmakers (directors, actors, writers, producers, editors, cinematographers, composers, etc.) of every persuasion (high/low-budget features, short films, animation, etc.) and authors on movies and moviemaking. Also featured are film reviews, special programs and prize giveaways.
- In addition, we cover all the major film festivals (Sundance, Cannes, Toronto) with live on-site and in-studio reports.
- Mission Statement: Celluloid Dreams is a public affairs radio program celebrating the art of film and the movie-going experience. We provide information to listeners on all aspects of movies including interviews, film/DVD/book/soundtrack reviews and film quiz contests. Celluloid Dreams serves the San Jose State University campus, the Bay area film community and the world at www.ksjs.org by conveying quality information, entertainment and the excitement of the movies.
- History: Debuted May 6, 1996. Began as an offshoot of sci-fi/pop culture program PrimeAudio Soup. The show's tight structure and solid production values immediately began attracting top-quality talent from Hollywood and beyond. Recipient of numerous consecutive KSJS staff awards for Best Public Affairs Show and Best Sound.
- Past Guests: John Travolta, Julie Andrews, Johnny Depp, Spike Lee, Hugh Grant, Ron Howard, Ben Kingsley, Robert Wise, Oliver Stone, Peter Fonda, Jackie Chan, William H.
